Columbia dominated the field events to sweep the boys' and girls' title at the 15th Essex County Relays, yesterday at Woodman Field in Montclair.

Lee Barnett led the boys to their third straight county championship. The girls, paced by hurdler Kyla Scott, won their fourth straight title.

The Columbia boys' field team, coached by Jay Gavitt, won the team shot put discus, javelin and pole vault to help Columbia to 78 points. Weequahic was second with 56 and Montclair was third with 55.

Barnett was on three winning field teams. He teamed with Kareem Franklin to win the shot put with a combined 95-1/2, with Mike Powell to win the discus at 277-3 and with Oscar Duncan to win the team javelin at 328-3. David Lefkon and John Shu of Columbia won the team pole vault with a total clearance of 23-0.

Scott was on two winning hurdles teams as the Columbia girls' team won the title with 72 points. Livingston was second with 42 and Arts and Weequahic tied for third at 38.

Scott, Andrea Melton, Jennifer Duncan and Kali Coleman joined to win the shuttle hurdles in 1:04.1 and Scott, Rashida MacMurray and Rhea Moore teamed to win the team intermediate hurdles in 3:26.1.
